Title: Freelance Writer
Department: Communications
Status: Project based

Job Description

Moses Brown School is seeking several freelance writers to assist with reporting projects within our community. We are looking for writers with experience in writing both long- and short-form journalistic features and news articles; fluency with video or audio storytelling is a plus.

- Must be comfortable with and have interest in interviewing students, faculty, staff, alumni, and others; and/or using existing interviews/primary sources to tell the stories of our community.

- Ability to spend time on our campus in Providence is important for many projects, but some pieces can be handled via phone or video chat.

- Standard rate is $0.50/word; can discuss variable rates for special projects.

- Quantity of work varies throughout the year; we can accommodate writers who wish to do one piece per month, and those who wish to do one piece per week.

Candidates should send a statement of interest, portfolio of writing samples, and resume to jobs@mosesbrown.org with “Freelance Writer” in the subject line.

About Moses Brown School

Moses Brown School is a 238-year-old co-educational independent day school enrolling 775 students, nursery through twelfth grade. A Friends school, MB exists to inspire children to reach their full intellectual and spiritual potential. We engage students in a rich academic curriculum, a broad offering of arts and athletics, and a daily life rooted in the Quaker values of community, equality, and service. We affirm the Quaker belief that there is an Inner Light in each person that is worthy of dignity and respect. We consider simplicity, integrity, group wisdom, and respect for differences to be paramount in helping students of all faiths and backgrounds discover their identity and mission in the world. In its hiring practices, Moses Brown does not discriminate and seeks to maximize the diversity of the school in terms of class, gender, ethnicity, race, religion, sexual orientation, abilities/disabilities, and language.
